NOW ONThe Greatest Fur Sale Ever Held*$200,000 Worth of Fashionable Furs for Less Than $100,000.

To-morrow, Monday, we will launch a fur sale that will go down into history as one of the most extraordinary events of the kind ever held.

There will be beautiful fur-lined coats, jackets, scarfs, mufflers and sets in every wanted fur, from the most modest to the most magnificent.

In most instances we purchased the skins and had the garments made up during the period when fur tailors, ordinarily, are not busy. Therefore the very low prices.

Next winter the identical garments will cost you at least double, so it is obvious that your advantage lies in buying now.

Make an early selection, pay a small deposit and we will store the furs free of charge until October 15, if you desire.

Men's & Women's Luxurious Fur-Lined Coats.

This feature of this marvelous fur sale is in itself worth a visit to the store. Every coat in the great showing is fashioned after the most approved and newest models. The broadcloth "shell" is a very fine quality, while the fur linings are rich and beautiful.

NO HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS ON DUTY IN WASHINGTON.

First Time This Year That the Affairs of the Government Have Been in Entire Charge of Subordinates—Who the Heads of the Various Departments Are.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—For the first time this summer every member of the President's Cabinet was absent from Washington to-day. They are scattered all the way from Canada to Uruguay, and the administration of governmental affairs was in the hands of assistants. Affairs moved as smoothly as if every Cabinet officer had been at his desk.

Secretary Root is making his South American trip aboard the cruiser Charleston to-day and to-day was at Montevideo. First Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon was in New York to-day and Second Assistant Secretary A. A. Adams was in charge of the State Department, and there is never any fear that diplomatic matters will not be properly attended to when he is in charge. Secretary Shaw of the Treasury was being shown in Missouri and in turn was endeavoring to show the "one gallus brigade" the merits of high prices and of standing pat. Assistant Secretary Keap was in charge of the Treasury Department. Secretary Taft is at Murray Bay, Canada, trying to reduce his weight and enjoy the pleasant things which are being said of his Presidential term. Assistant Secretary Oliver is also on his vacation. Gen. Anson, the Military Secretary, is the acting Secretary of War.

Attorney-General Moody is not in Washington and Assistant Attorney-General Hoyt is in charge. Secretary Bonaparte, who has been in Washington since the first of the present month, did not come over to the Capitol from his home near Baltimore to-day and as Assistant Secretary Newberry is on his vacation Rear Admiral Converse, the Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, had charge of the Navy Department for a few hours. Postmaster-General Cortelyou is in New York for a few days, it is said on political business in connection with his duties as chairman of the Republican national committee. First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock is in charge of the postal affairs of the nation. Secretary Hitchcock of the Interior Department is rusticated in New Hampshire and has left the management of his office to Assistant Secretary Francis Secretary Wilson is in Chicago working in connection with the meat inspection matter and Assistant Secretary Hayes is acting. Secretary McCall of the Department of Commerce and Labor is at his home in Oakland, Cal., and Assistant Secretary Lawrence O. Murray is in charge of that branch of the Government.

All three of the civil service commissions are away from Washington. Mr. Cooley is in New England visiting. Gen. Black has gone to Minneapolis to attend the commencement of the Grand Army and Commissioner Green is in Duluth. Ex-Senator Cockrell is the only member of the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington to-day. He works all the time, doesn't want a vacation and eats two apples for lunch every day. Despite the absence of all the leading officials the Government at Washington still lives.

Extensive Alterations.

Special Inducements are offered in Remnants of extra fine imported fancy worsteds and chevots, including blues and blacks, light and medium weights. Suit to measure $18. Trousers $5.

ARNHEIM,
Broadway & Ninth Street.P. O. RECEIPTS GROW.

Gain of $500,000 in July in the Fifty Largest Offices as Compared With a Year Ago.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—A comparative statement was given out at the Post Office Department today showing the gross receipts at the fifty largest post offices in the country in July, 1905, and in July of this year. The total for last month was $5,757,545, as compared with $5,250,524. This is a gain of more than $507,000.

Receipts at New York increased from $1,058,411 to $1,185,929, a gain of $127,517, or nearly 12 per cent. At Brooklyn the receipts last month were $157,967, as compared with $143,353 in July last year.

Movements of Naval Vessels.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The monitor Nevada has arrived at Annapolis, the cruiser Charleston at Montevideo, the supply ship Celtic at Sancho, the gunboat Sylph at the navy yard, New York, and the gunboat Scorpion at Monte Cristi.

The cruiser Rainbow has sailed from Cavite, the Chefoo, the cruiser Chastanoga from Yokohama for Chefoo, the collier Nero from Block Island for New London, the cruiser Mayflower from Sancho for Monte Cristi, the tug Hooker from Norfolk for Indian Head, and the torpedo boat Stockton from Annapolis for Norfolk.

Army and Navy Orders.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—These army orders have been issued: The board of officers at Fort Jay, appointed for the examination of officers for promotion, is dissolved. Capt. Clarence H. McNeil, Artillery, to Fort Totten.

Orders of July 26 and August 7 relating to Lieut. Col. Henry I. Kingsbury, Eighth Cavalry, and Edward J. McElmerman, First Cavalry, are revoked. Orders of July 30 are so amended as to direct Capt. Thomas G. Ashburn, Artillery, to Fort Totten.

CHESTER GILLETTE IS 23.

Accused Murderer of Grace Brown Has a Birthday in Jail—Bacquet Found.

WYCK, Aug. 11.—Chester Gillette of Cortland, who is held at Herkimer for the murder of Grace Brown, was 23 years old yesterday. The prisoner, who has failed rapidly during the last couple of weeks, complains of lack of exercise and is rapidly losing his bravado spirit. The fact that his will to do relatives have deserted him has taken all the heart out of the young man. He has not secured an attorney to defend him in his trial.

The tennis racket which Gillette had with him the day he jumped into the rowboat at Big Moose Lake and started for South Bay with Miss Brown was found to-day. Gillette, it is understood, was put through the third degree a few days ago by the Herkimer authorities and as a result Deputy Sheriff Richards went to Big Moose last night and to-day found the racket hidden under a pile of brush. The theory has been advanced that it was with the racket that Gillette struck the girl, fracturing her skull and then throwing her unconscious form overboard.

When Gillette was asked to-day if his mother, who is in the far West, had received notice of his predicament he said he thought she had, as he had written to her that he was in trouble.

"I could not tell her of the charge against me," said Gillette, "but as my sister also has written her, I suppose she knows now what it is."

GOT CROOK WHO HADN'T BOOTY.

Robbed Man Rode on Car With Pickpockets and Detectives.

Detectives Kinsler and Duggan of Police Headquarters, looking over the occupants of a crowded eastbound Thirty-fourth street car at Broadway on Friday night, recognized two notorious pickpockets on board. They boarded the car. Near Fifth avenue one of the crooks got sight of the sleuths, hopped off the car and lost himself in the maze of carriage ways in front of the Waldorf-Astoria. When the second tried to do the same thing his way was blocked and he was held for examination in the Central Office. He was identified by a picture in the Rogues' Gallery as James Leonard of 142 Nassau street, Brooklyn. About the same time Nelson G. Wickham of 230 Fulton street, Union Hill, reported at the East Thirty-fifth street police station that he had lost a wallet containing $280 in bills and three checks amounting to $8. On conferring with the Central Office Sergt. McAdam learned that the man had been riding on the same car with Leonard, and the latter was held for examination in the Essex Market police court yesterday morning. Magistrate Moss held the prisoner in $1,000 bail for trial in General Sessions, though Wickham's property was not found on him.
